"GIVING ANIMALS A SECOND CHANCE AT LIFE AND LOVE"

Our Animals Need Your HELP!

We never give up on our animals . . .  and neither should you.

Miss Potts

 Take Miss Potts, a 2-year-old Pit Bull Terrier Mix who came in last July as a stray with her nine puppies. They were abandoned in a car and brought in by the police. All of her puppies got adopted, and she waited for her turn almost a year before we helped her get into an animal rescue.

Or Jojo, a Shepherd/Collie mix, who came in December as an owner-surrender. He is a very sweet-natured boy who takes a little longer to warm up to people so it made people hesitant to adopt him. But we didn't give up. And he just found just the right family to give him his forever home.

Jojo

Xena

 And then there was Xena, a Pit/Lab mix who came back in October when she was only about four months old. She's a very submissive and friendly dog who loves to play with dogs and other cats, but her puppy energy made potential adopters leery. Never fear. Since we've hired a trainer, his consistent training helped Xena get a new forever home.

And don't forget Paris. This 5-year-old Persian cat has been re-homed and returned a few times through no fault of her own. She had a lot of families interested in her during the time she was here, but she needed a home with no other animals. We didn't give up and the perfect family finally came along.

Paris

We struggle, but we won't give up.

It costs about $2,700 a day to keep our shelter running and provide for the 400 animals in our care. And many days we just don't get that much money in donations. We struggle, we cut back, we stretch our pennies, we hope, we pray that somehow we can manage to feed all the little mouths we have to feed and provide for those that need medicine and extra care. We don't give up, and we hope the next day will be better.

We don't give up on you either.

Maybe you can't give every time we ask, but can you please help this time? Any amount will do. We know you want to help, and we're not giving up on you or our animals. Your donation today will help other animals just like Jeannie and Alfred who are still here patiently waiting for their forever homes.

Jeannie

Jeannie, a Pit Bull Terrier Mix, came to us pregnant. All her puppies have been adopted, but Jeannie is still here, looking for someone to love her just as much as she wants to love YOU! She'll stay by your side, give you kisses and enjoy lots of treats.

And then there's Alfred, the sweetest Tabby Orange Tiger Mix cat ever. This Jolly Orange Giant is super cuddly and has beautiful markings and adorable, blazing yellow eyes. Alfred loves to lie in his hammock, and needs to be an only pet so he can be the king of your castle.

Alfred

Your tax-deductible gift will help us feed and care for the many more long-timers just like Jeannie and Alfred who know we won't give up on them as long as they need our love and care, and as long as there are generous people like you who will help. Please don't give up on these wonderful souls.

We're counting on YOU!
